

AUTHOR DUO, DIGMAN & RODDY PUBLISH EPIC SPACE OPERA NOVEL: THE DARK THAT DWELLS

Alabama, July 10, 2020 – Husband and wife writing duo, Matt Digman and Ryan Roddy, are pleased to announce the publication of their debut novel, THE DARK THAT DWELLS, on July 10, 2020. This first installment in a new space opera series combines the epic scale of the original Star Wars trilogy with the ensemble-cast adventure of Firefly in a world where alien technologies, hidden magic, and ancient evils push the limits of reality itself. This story blends science fiction and fantasy against the backdrop of a vast universe with deep world-building at its core.

THE DARK THAT DWELLS unfolds through the viewpoints of four characters: Sidna Orin, a mercurial young arcanist, striving to gain the lost knowledge that could save her people. Fall Arden, honorable sword-for-hire, working as a guide on a dangerous expedition into an unexplored frontier. Ban Morgan, disgraced marine wielding high-tech weaponry, chained by remorse and the ghosts of his past. Tieger of Westmarch, fanatical zealot, empowered with the seemingly divine technology of his overlord and a starship feared across generations.

Forced together by fate on paths that collide in chaos, these four must fight to survive. As their stories interweave in love and hate, redemption and revenge, one threat will eclipse their greatest fears: a being of utter darkness and its imminent return.

THE DARK THAT DWELLS: essential for readers craving robust, character-driven adventures on fantastic alien worlds, bullet-ridden starships barely held together, and the expansive infinity of space-time itself.

Matt Digman and Ryan Roddy are emergency medicine physicians based in Alabama. This series debut is their first novel together.
